L Rose Interior Design

“I design soulful, tailor-made spaces — uniting artistry and construction — to make everyday living feel extraordinary.”

Lakesha Rose, ASID, IIDA, is a sought-after interior designer whose passion for transforming spaces was sparked at 18 during her first visit to Chicago's iconic Merchandise Mart. That moment unlocked a lifelong mission: create interiors that don't just look beautiful, but make people feel extraordinary. Known for tailor-made, emotionally resonant work, Lakesha's designs have been featured in Design Chicago, The Wall Street Journal, and CS Modern Luxury, and she was named one of Chicago's top interior designers by Modern Luxury Interiors. Through L Rose Interior Design, she and her team also specialize in construction renovation—partnering with architects and builders to reimagine floor plans, manage specifications, and guide projects seamlessly from demo to final install. Blending technical expertise, hands-on construction experience, and an artistic eye, Lakesha speaks with authority and passion about how design shapes the way we live. Her storytelling, industry insight, and infectious energy make her an unforgettable voice on stage, inspiring audiences to see design as more than décor—it's a feeling.
